THE STARS AND STRIPES ARE AHEAD.

BURY THE BANDANA, AND UP WITH THE FLAG!

"WEST-ward the star of empire takes its way."

We like the kind of Democracy that New York gives us.

The prohibitionists are not happy. They want all they ask or nothing.

We will heed the democratic cry pretty soon, and "turn the rascals out."

FREE-TRADE England retires abashed before the majesty of American protection.

CLEVELAND is not in favor of a second term. Neither are the people—in his case.

HANDS OFF, Johnny Bull! America henceforth will manage her own affairs.

FREE TRADE slinks back to English soil, while the glorious banner of protection waves over free America.

MR. CLEVELAND, there is nothing which succeeds like success. It is a better thing to catch onto than "reform."

The German Emperor is said to be a constant smoker of cigarettes. That lets him out as a dangerous factor in European politics.

WHEN Thanksgiving day comes the Republicans can give thanks that G. C. will write no more proclamations after March next.

CLEVELAND'S undignified action in insulting the British minister for political effect continues to be the subject of sarcastic comment by the press of England, Germany and France.

The Herald is sarcastic in alluding to the small prohibition vote which was cast in this country. The prohibitionists disappointed their Democratic friends. It was too bad.

The Argentine Republic and Algeria are both going largely into the cultivation of vines for raisins. California raisin-makers will soon have plenty of competition.

The life of Mrs. Margaret Foo-Kane has been threatened, since her exposure of spiritualism. The mediums and other frauds find that their business is falling off.

On the fourth of March next the Nation is invited to attend the funeral obsequies of "reform." Cleveland, free trade, offensive partisanship and the solid South will be the chief mourners.

The Republicans claim that Sackville tried to help Cleveland. The Democrats say that he tried to defeat Cleveland. It makes very little difference now, what he tried to do. We know what he did.

The result of the election was practically known here by 7 o'clock of the evening of election day—the same hour that the result was known eight years ago. Four years ago the result was not known for several days.

The total popular vote for President in 1884, as compiled by the American Almanac, was: Cleveland (Democrat), 4,907,017; Blaine (Republican), 4,848,534; Butler (Greenback), 138,325; St. John (Prohibition), 151,809; Cleveland's plurality, 62,683.

The duty of the Republican party will be now not only the protection of American industries, but the protection of the ballot-box in every precinct of the South where, under a Democratic administration, fraud and violence have held sway.

REPUBLICANS are not ungrateful. On Tuesday the American people, remembering the blood that has been poured out upon the soil to maintain the rights of American freemen, declared by their votes that those rights should be forever maintained, and liberty and protection should be the watchword of the Republic.

THE Presidential electors chosen by popular vote on Tuesday last will meet at their respective State capitals on Monday, January 14, 1889, and cast their ballots for President and Vice-President of the United States. The whole number of electors is 401; necessary for a choice, 201; of which Benjamin Harrison has, apparently, 239, and Grover Cleveland 162.

DURING the past campaign business issues have been very little disturbed. The public has learned that commercial ruin does not necessarily follow the success of one party. They are beginning to have faith in the stability of our institutions.

THE PRESIDENCY.

We are now able to make a pretty fair estimate of the result in our own State. With three-fourths of the State heard from, outside of San Francisco, Harrison is 10,600 ahead of Cleveland. The Democratic plurality in San Francisco will probably not exceed 2500, leaving Harrison's plurality in the State about 8000.

Mr. Blaine at length admits the defeat of his party.

We once more change our electoral table—probably for the last time—by transferring Connecticut from the doubtful to the Democratic column.

That State appears to have given a small plurality for Cleveland, although it is still possible that later returns may change the result. We place West Virginia in the Republican column.

The Democratic State officials concede the State by from 400 to 700 majority. The Republicans claim a still larger figure. Anyhow, the State is safe and the ranks of the solid South are at length broken. Four years hence they will be rent asunder. As so amended our table now stands:

Harrison, 239; Cleveland, 162; the Republicans having 33 votes more than are necessary, so that we could afford to give the Democrats New York and yet win.

Harrison's plurality in Michigan will reach 22,000, against 3308 for Blaine in 1884. This very large gain is attributed to the return of the Greenbackers to the old party lines.

The State of Indiana is now beyond dispute. Harrison's majority being 4000, and Indianapolis broke loose yesterday in celebration of the victory.

Comments upon the result are beginning to be received. The indifference of local Democratic leaders in New York is offered as one explanation.

United Ireland, a Dublin paper, says Harrison owes his election to the Sackville affair.

Among the many explanations offered there seems to be danger that the simple and true one may be overlooked. It is that the people of the United States want "No, no, no free trade!"

CONGRESS.

The Republicans will undoubtedly control the next House.

It is estimated that the next Delaware Legislature will stand 16 Republicans to 14 Democrats, insuring a Republican successor to Senator Saulsbury, whose term expires next March.

Democratic St. Louis elected three Republican Congressmen.

The Republicans make apparently well-based claims to three gains in Michigan, but the Democrats have gained in Virginia.

The Republicans claim the election of all four Congressmen in West Virginia.

We may look for some good legislation from the next Congress.

GEN. VANDEVER.

Prominent among the figures which cause Los Angeles Republicans to smile and Democrats to wear wary faces are those relating to the Congressional contest in the Sixth California District.

A dispatch received late last night from San Francisco gives Gen. Vandever 30,216 and Terry 23,716—an even difference of 7000 votes—with 190 precincts yet to hear from. These precincts may somewhat reduce this majority, but certainly not below 5000.

We congratulate the veteran General on this splendid victory. "Rah for Vandever."

THE COUNTY.

We have now received the county returns, with the exception of eight small precincts. The figures for President are: Harrison, 14,512; Cleveland, 10,423; Fisk, 1144; showing a plurality for Harrison over Cleveland of 4089.

Bully for the banner county of the Golden State!

For Congress the figures are: Vandever, 14,728; Terry, 10,384; Miller, 997. Vandever's plurality, 4344.

For Sheriff Aguirre has 14,400; Rowan, 10,519; Matlock, 958. Aguirre's plurality, 3791.

For Treasurer: Banbury, 14,814; Hermann, 11,347; Witmer, 837. Banbury's plurality, 3467.

The entire Republican county and legislative ticket is elected by pluralities approximating those above given. Vulnerable Venable is snowed under in a particularly satisfactory manner.

The city gave Harrison 6791 and Cleveland 5431.

Altogether, Los Angeles county may be congratulated on having done her whole duty in the present campaign. She has furnished a Murchison and a big Republican majority.

What'll we take? Well, really, we don't expect anything, but if the new administration should be perplexed about the disposition of that surplus, which has worried the Democrats so much, we might suggest that the port of Wilmington, which lies about fifty miles south-west of Pomona, is open to improvement, and a million or so—but then, Vandever will attend to that, when he gets to Washington.

NEW YORKERS have begun to discover leprosy among the Chinese population of that city. This is a good thing for the Pacific Coast. The East is beginning to understand the Chinese question.

CROSS CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS.

On the returns of 1886 there were twenty-four close Congressional districts, some of them surprisingly close. Their number, State, pluralities and the politics of the sitting member are as follows:

District.	Plurality.	Member.
Fifth California.....	119	R.
Sixth California.....	35	D.
Second Illinois.....	29	D.
Tenth Illinois.....	29	R.
Eleventh Illinois.....	433	R.
Eleventh Indiana.....	408	R.
First Iowa.....	137	R.
Ninth Kentucky.....	138	R.
Sixth Maryland.....	413	R.
Ninth Massachusetts.....	211	D.
Fifth Michigan.....	447	D.
Ninth Missouri.....	109	D.
Fourth New Jersey.....	123	D.
Third New York.....	172	D.
Fifth New York.....	473	D.
Eighth New York.....	350	D.
Fifteenth New York.....	401	D.
Nineteenth New York.....	107	D.
Seventh Ohio.....	9	D.
Twentieth Pennsylvania.....	153	R.
Twenty-first Pennsylvania.....	235	R.
Third Tennessee.....	68	D.
Sixth Virginia.....	450	R.
Second West Virginia.....	90	D.

In the course of a day or two, after the full returns of the Congressional vote shall have been received, it will be possible to know how these close districts went in the election of Tuesday. The new House of Representatives will be sure Republican, however.

Spiritualistic Specimen.

An organ of the long-haired cult, published in San Francisco, entitled the Golden Gate, attacks THE TIMES viciously on our recent editorial scoring which we administered to mediums, clairvoyants and other similar frauds. It has the audacity to liken its absurd system of low juggling to the Christian religion. In its columns appears a communication from "Sun Angel Order of Light," which is stated to have been "written for the Golden Gate by Spirit Saida, leader of the Oriental Band in the Heavens," to the children of the Order of Light in the Earth Land. Spirit Saida, among other important news, informs the world that the angels are not satisfied with either the Republican or the Democratic parties, but will shortly establish a new one.

Our prisons and insane asylums ought to be enlarged; the former to accommodate the "mediums" and the latter to take charge of those unfortunate who really believe that such twaddle as this is inspired origin.

Every one of these mediums is a mercenary fraud, working by means of second-rate jugglers' tricks. Every so-called spirit materialization can easily be proved to be low trickery, and is invariably shown to be such whenever any one takes the trouble to expose it.

It will be remembered that the United States once had a Lord Sackville in the person of Sargent, our Minister to Berlin, who made himself very obnoxious to the German Government by taking sides with the most violent of the opponents of the existing German power. The German Government, however, made no demand for his recall.

CLEVELAND'S undisguised bid for the Irish-American vote, when he hastily dismissed Lord Sackville at the bidding of Messrs. Collins and O'Reilly, failed in its effect. He failed to capture the Irish vote and lost that of the British-Americans, which is becoming quite an important factor, there being, it is said, over 100,000 British-American voters in the United States.

Two thousand five hundred years ago the Isthmus of Corinth Canal, in Greece, was planned. Seventeen hundred years ago work was commenced on it by the Emperor Nero. The canal is now nearly completed—four miles in length. There is yet hope that the paving of first street may be completed before the earth's internal fires give out.

WRITING about the growing unwieldiness of metropolitan papers, the St. Louis Spectator makes the following sensible remarks:

"Let's agree to support the paper that will initiate the New York Sun and give us a paper wherein every column is readable, and the size is adjusted to the time necessary to read an interesting newspaper. The bustle is going out of style, and there is no longer an excuse for papers that are sold by their weight."

The final surveys for the proposed Nicaragua Canal (says the Guatemala Star) are now completed. Members of the survey party affirm that the result of their work is most satisfactory, and exceeds the anticipations of the company. It is expected that the work of excavation will begin next December.

The voters of Los Angeles county showed what they thought of THE TIMES' exposure of the financial crookedness in the Supervisors' office. Mr. Venable ran away behind his ticket, and the ticket itself was almost out of sight.

A LADY writes to the Boston Journal of last Friday:

"Do the members of the W. C. T. U. know that their leader, Miss Frances Willard, is a very intimate friend of Mrs. Grover Cleveland, and that the Union Signal is using its influence to secure the reelection of Mr. Cleveland?"

THE organized Territories—Arizona, Dakota, Idaho, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Washington and Wyoming—each elected one Delegate to Congress on Tuesday last, who is permitted to speak, but not to vote.

Now the election is over, let us go to work with a will, every one of us, to give this city and county a boost forward.

NOW MAY the honest American laborer sit beneath his own vine and fig-tree, with no hordes of pauper toilers to molest or make him afraid.

THE New York Times says that "tariff reform" has been "deferred." "Indefinitely postponed" would be a more correct phrase.

THE Republican candidates for the Supreme bench, Beatty and Works, are probably elected.

SOME of our able contemporaries are busy in constructing cabinets for Gen. Harrison, in most of which the name of James G. Blaine prominently figures. One thing our esteemed, but somewhat previous, contemporaries may rely upon—that is, that Gen. Harrison will be his own President. He is that kind of a man. There are many good and sufficient reasons why Mr. Blaine should not occupy a place in the Cabinet. There is no doubt that Gen. Harrison fully appreciates these reasons, and we venture the prediction that when the names of the members of the Cabinet are announced that of the Maine Senator will not be found among them. Look at the thing from the standpoint of common sense and political sagacity, and you must conclude that Gen. Harrison will not be likely to choose a cabinet in which any one member of it will be the Administration.

THE California Legislature will be Republican by 20 to 25 on joint ballot.

AMUSEMENTS.

AT THE ORPHEUM.—Now that the country is saved, people can afford to be merry, and as a natural consequence Halten and Hart had a better house for their pains last night. Tomorrow evening will see the last of them, however.

Sackville affair, as the Irish voters suspected, of being friendly with Salisbury. While it is flattering to the Irish to be able to turn the scale in such a contest, the fact is as regrettable as it is humiliating and menacing to America. The Irish vote exists as a separate and distinct factor in American politics because the fact that Ireland is without home rule ranks as a spearhead in the relations between the English-speaking race. It would be cheap for America to establish home rule in Ireland even at the cost of a war with Great Britain. We need not comment on the value to England of a settlement of the Irish question.

AN ENGLISH VIEW.
LONDON, Nov. 8.—The Globe says: "President Cleveland has not gained anything by fusing with the fisheries question, or by his brusque, rude treatment of Lord Sackville. It is satisfactory to find that even in America the weathercock policy is not always profitable. His defeat is a heavy blow to the Democrats. It may help to compensate Mr. Blaine for his previous failure, as he will probably become Secretary of State. Mr. Blaine may not be able to revive the market for foreign policy which helped to create distrust and promote his defeat, but his alliance or understanding with the Irish element may not tend to soften his conduct in international affairs."

AFTERMATH.

Anna Dickinson Sues for Her Campaign Services.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—[By the Associated Press.] Anna E. Dickinson, the lecturer and actress, has begun suit in the Supreme Court against the Republican National Committee to recover $1250 for services rendered during the campaign. She claims that she was engaged in September to deliver 35 lectures in the West, and was to receive $135 for each lecture and her expenses. She has received $1250, but claims that it was also agreed that, in the event of Harrison's election, she was to receive $600. The complaint was served on Senator Quay and his fellow committeemen tonight.

CHAIRMAN BARNUM VERY ILL.

NEW HAVEN (Ct.), Nov. 8.—W. H. Barnum of the Democratic National Committee is seriously ill at his home at Lime Rock. In answer to a telephone inquiry tonight, it was learned that he was taken sick about a week ago, while in New York. He returned to his home on Monday, and his illness assumed a dangerous character. Tonight, however, his condition is slightly improved. The trouble is caused by overwork, resulting in nervous prostration.

ELECTION SQUARE.

RICHMOND (Va.), Nov. 8.—United States Commissioner Pleasant has arrested the City Board of Commissioners of Election of Richmond for refusing to allow United States supervisors to be present at the count of the vote today.

TELEPHONIC ELECTION.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The Evening Post says the electoral vote will stand Harrison 233, Cleveland 163, giving West Virginia to the Democrats.

An extra edition of the Telegram, just out, says: "The air has now cleared so completely that the President's election can be fairly seen. Harrison, as our friend Sam Cox would say, is 'thoroughly elected in every respect.' So sweeping, indeed, has been the victory that his majority in the Electoral College will be at least 65. He has carried not only New York, but Indiana, Wisconsin and Pennsylvania, the safe majorities, according to the latest returns. In other words, he is elected President without the vote of New York. This settles the contest for all practical purposes, and shows the size of Democratic defeat. The White House being disposed of, the only other points of interest are the two branches of Congress.

Georgia's gubernatorial election.

ATLANTA (Ga.), Nov. 8.—Returns of the recent gubernatorial election were opened before the Legislature today. Gov. Gordon received 122,755, with not more than 4000 against him.

FUGUE'S MURDER.

The Inquest Shows That Anschlag

Detective Emil Harris yesterday received a letter from the Sheriff of Butte county, dated at Oroville, November 5th, stating the result of the inquest over the remains of Fugue, the man Fritz Anschlag confessed to have murdered at Constat, Butte county, a year ago last September. The remains of Fugue, it will be remembered, were discovered buried at Anschlag's ranch by Jailer Russell and Detective Harris a few days ago just where the slayer had told them to hunt for them. From the result of the autopsy it is evident that Anschlag in his last confession was truthfully lying when he said that he murdered Fugue by shooting him in the neck with a shotgun, and then buried the body in his clothes on his (Anschlag's) ranch. As far as disposing of the body goes, that is correct, with the exception of having his clothing on.

The autopsy shows that Fugue was not killed by the discharge of a shotgun in the back of the neck, but by a pistol ball penetrating the brain. A small hole as it made by a shot from the head, but the lead could not be found. The right jaw was horribly crushed in, as if done with some blunt instrument, and small pieces of bone were found in the mouth. The right jaw was broken and the orbit of the right eye was crushed in with the interior of the mouth. The right jaw was broken and the orbit of the right eye was crushed in with the interior of the mouth. The right jaw was broken and the orbit of the right eye was crushed in with the interior of the mouth.

From the fact that the body was so horribly mutilated, it is evident that the work of Anschlag, as the bodies of his last victims—Mr. and Mrs. Hitchcock—were hacked up in a similar manner. Bader's whereabouts is still unknown.

Butter Explosion.

Yesterday afternoon shortly before 5 o'clock, one of the flues of the new boilers at the Electric Light Works, at the corner of Alameda and Banning streets, exploded with a loud report, driving the piece of iron through the rear wall of the building, and doing considerable damage. Richard Furey, who was working on a scaffold about thirty feet high at the time, lost his balance and fell to the ground, breaking his thigh bone. He was removed to his home, at the corner of San Pedro and Fourth streets, and Dr. Hunkins summoned, who attended to his injuries, and at a late hour last night he was resting easily. This was the only casualty.

A Funny Fight.

William Dowland and Frank Johnson got into a fight on Main street about 8:30 o'clock last evening, and were arrested by Officer Figueas. Johnson said he was standing on the sidewalk when the other man walked up and struck him. No one seemed to know anything about the affair.

A Fourth Trick.

A telephone or some other kind of wire was stretched across the street at the corner of Fifth and San Pedro last evening after dark, which came near wrecking a street car by entangling the horses and getting wrapped around the wheels. If it was done purposely to cause a party to be detected and punished.

Only a Friendly "Crab."

Billy Manning, the pugilist, and ex-Detective Brady exchanged blows in front of McGinnis's saloon last evening about 8 o'clock. Manning was standing talking, when Brady came up, and the former began to "josh" him. Brady applied an appropriate epithet to him, when Billy struck out from the shoulder and got in one lick when the crowd closed around them and put a stop to hostilities. There were no arrests.

AN UNPOPULAR APPOINTMENT.

BRISBANE, Nov. 8.—The Premier sent a cable dispatch to the Queensland agent in England, saying that the appointment of Gov. Blake of Newfoundland to the Governorship of Queensland has excited general anger and wonder. Ex-Premier Griffiths agrees with the Premier in condemning the appointment. Last month the English Governor was asked to privately submit the name of the proposed new Governor before the appointment was made. Lord Knutsford replied that it was impossible to allow colonial ministers to share in the responsibility for a nomination.

MORE IMPERIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

BERLIN, Nov. 8.—In addition to the letters from the late Emperor Frederick found in Baron von Roggenbach's house, the police discovered in a secret drawer in a writing desk two bundles of telegrams and letters from Frederick, written when he was Crown Prince, his wife, Queen Victoria, the Prince of Wales, Prince Alexander of Battenberg, Dr. Mackenzie, the Duke of Edinburgh, Count von Seckendorff, Herr Windthorst and others.

GENEROUS FRANCIS JOSEPH.

VIENNA, Nov. 8.—Emperor Francis Joseph has officially intimated that it is his special wish that on the anniversary of his accession to the throne he shall receive neither honors nor decorations, and that no fetes will be held that will involve expense. He desires his accession to be commemorated by acts of public charity.
